Dear Mr. Burkley:

Thank you for inviting CIA Director William J. Casey to address the 17th Washington Workshops 1984 Congressional Seminars for high school students sometime this spring.

Mr. Casey has asked me to extend his regrets. Due to tentative travel plans and a full schedule of official duties, he must decline the honor.

Sincerely,

George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs

Mr. William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Casey,

The Washington Workshops Foundation presents its 1984 Congressional Seminars. 1984 marks our 17th year as the original program of its kind, offering unique academic seminars for high school student leaders in the Nation's Capital.

Today, it is more essential than ever that these young Americans communicate to the leaders of government their goals and aspirations for our country. To this end it is my pleasure to extend an invitation to you to address informally these concerned and capable students.

The Washington Workshops has long cooperated with the Executive Branch by providing these seminars which serve to increase public awareness and stimulate a more positive opinion of government. Our principal goal remains the same; to provide a quality program which is a credit to both the young people of America and their government.

It is my sincere hope that at some time during your hectic schedule you might find time to meet with us. This year our Seminar dates are: March 4-10, 11-17, 18-24, April 1-7, 8-14, 29-May 5, June 3-9 and June 17-23. Stephen Hourahan, my assistant, will work with your staff in this regard.

Thank you for your consideration of this invitation. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Thad Thomas Burkley
Director
Congressional Seminar
